J. Ik heb voorspeld (1/2)

Here are some examples of regular Dutch verbs in their infinitive or plain form and their past participles; for instance, slibben means to silt up, and its past participle geslibd means silted up, as in “It has silted up”. The English meaning is given for information only: it has no bearing on the solution.

Verb	Translation	Past participle

J-1: What are the past participles for the following verbs?

1 delen to share	2 horen to hear	3 tappen to pour a beer	4 verhuizen to move house	5 landen to land
6 kloppen to knock	7 mokken to sulk	8 roken to smoke	9 rotten to rot	10 tobben to worry

J-2: In part J-1 you were asked to predict (or derive) the past participle from the plain form. But doing it the other way round, i.e. deriving the plain form from its past participle, is not always possible. Give one reason why. Illustrate your answer with one of the examples given here.
